FINDINGS OF FACT / CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Based upon these specific findings of fact, the Court concludes the following conditions pursuant to KRS 620.060 existed to justify issuance of an Emergency Custody Order:

_____
_____
_____
_____

2. Reasonable efforts:

- Reasonable efforts were made to prevent the child's removal from the home.
 Reasonable efforts to prevent removal were not provided, but are being made to reunify the family.
 Reasonable efforts to preserve or reunify child with his/her family are not required pursuant to KRS 610.127.

3. The Court finds:

- a) there ~~are~~  are no less restrictive alternatives available for the child than removal at this time.
b) by a preponderance of the evidence, it  has  has not been proven that there  are  are no reasonable grounds to believe it would be contrary to the child's welfare in that the child would be dependent, neglected, or abused if returned to or left in the custody of his/her parent(s) or other person(s) exercising custodial control or supervision and said parent(s)/person(s) is/are unable or unwilling to protect the child as supported by  affidavit  in-court testimony

4. The Court makes the following specific findings of fact in support of continued removal of the child:
